Throughout our years at WLHS, Mr. Sibilia has played an important role in our lives. He is one of the most dedicated teachers we have known. Mr. S, with his positive attitude, is always willing to help students and faculty alike. He is not only our mentor, he is our good friend.

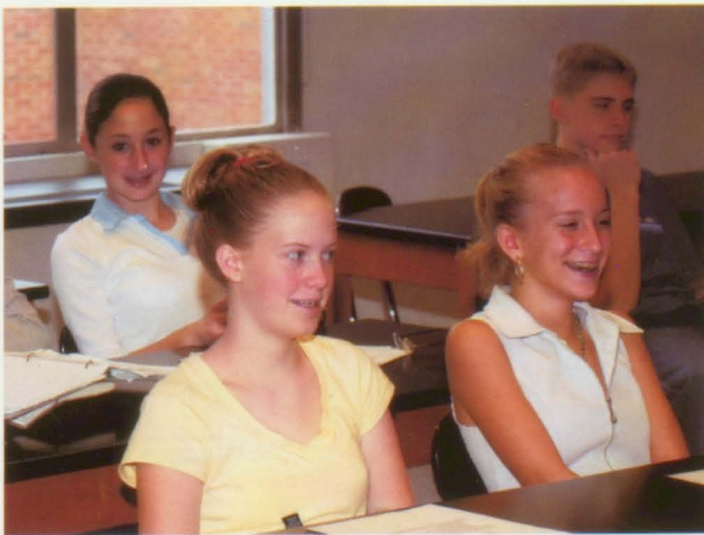

Because of this, the Class of 2003 dedicates their Herald to Mr. Paul Sibilia.

Each of us is a unique individual. We have different perspectives, we like different things, and we are friends with different people. However, there are common bonds present among all of us -- things we all share -- like the memories and experiences that you recall while reading through this yearbook. Symbolically, we can liken ourselves to songs. Most songs seem to have little in common, though they all are made up of similar parts like verses and choruses. Similarly, there are constants in our ever-changing and individual lives. While some things will certainly change in our lives, it is comforting to know the song remains the same.

It is hard to believe 13 years years have gone by, and you are graduating high school.

My little girl is all grown up and about to start a new journey in her life

College will just be another stepping stone along your journey into becoming a fulfilled, strong woman who will do great things in life!

Of all the gifts to the human race, what is sweeter than a child?

Never forget how much you are loved!

Shoot for the moon.....
 even if you miss,
 you'll land among the stars.

We are so proud of you!!!
 Mom, Dad & Samantha

Tara (Baby Ahms),

Where has the time gone? The passing years have only deepened our love for you. It has been said that a child chooses their parents before they are conceived. How grateful we are for you choosing us. You are a blessing and have made our journey, happy, filled with love and beauty. Always be yourself, love others, live your dreams to the fullest and embrace the wondrous happenings of your future. May your wishes shine like starlight in your eyes. Know we admire the remarkable young woman you have become and will love you forever and a day!

*We will always be here for you!
Mom, Dad, and Chris*

Tara,

what you decide to be.
We will be here if you need us.

P.S. Always be yourself.

Mat, ("Angel-Boy")

I never thought that the quiet guy in the Oakland A's hat who sat across from me in Algebra would turn out to be such an awesome person. We've come a long way from bickering over a calculator, to attending prom and ball, and being together last summer, and inevitably growing apart...Definitely, we've traveled a distance in our hearts and minds. Now that you're on your way to blazing a new path in life, remember true happiness resides in yourself, not in what else is going on around you. For the laughs, the talks, and the tears which I now keep in the photo album of my mind called "Memories"...Thank You. Your Crazy Diamond Always...Laura

Eric, (Marshmallow)

Congratulations sweetie! I am so proud of you. I can't believe it's been three years already. They have been the most wonderful three years of my life. We have been through everything together, and you stayed with me through it all. You stayed with me through thick and thin and you never let me quit even though you know I wanted to. We've shared so many memories throughout the years. You mean so much to me I can't even express how I feel about you in words. You held me close when I cried, you made me laugh when I was down, and you made my cloudy days full of sunshine. Overall you became more than a boyfriend to me, you became my very best friend and I love you very much.
Love Always,
Laura (Shorty)

To the next Steve Erwin/Jeff Corwin – Bryan Plis!

You have had an outstanding academic career at WLHS, and leadership experience with the Aces High FIRST robotics team.

We are extremely proud of your accomplishments to date and look forward to seeing what you can contribute to the world beyond Windsor Locks.

Having parented you through the age of the dinosaurs, sharks, crocodiles and lions, we have come to the realization that any animal with sharp teeth is your forte.

Some people say that it's a jungle out there, so we guess that your desire to work as a zoologist will fit in nicely.

PS - Let us be the first to congratulate you years in advance on reaching your goal of becoming a PhD.

Love Always,
Mom & Dad

As we held you're little hand, and gave you a great big hug...
We sat you down amongst your peers, on a silly little rug...
How fast the time has passed us by, for as you all can see...
It is us who sit here now with you and the class of 2003...
Proud, just doesn't do it justice, for how we feel deep down inside...
You have given us happiness, joy and lots of pride...
We've watched you grow inside and out..
Now here before us stands..
Not just a high school graduate, but a kind loving man..
For you Chris, a new day is dawning...
Your future is all so new...
And the path that you will choose won't be easy for me or you...
So farewell to you my darling son, in all that you should do...
And you stand proudly on this side, of the RED...WHITE...and BLUE...
We will always stand beside you, no matter what you choose.

Congratulations Chris

I love the sound of your name. Ever since you were a baby I've heard - "Oh, what a beautiful baby." & "What a pretty little girl." And now look at you. You're a beautiful young lady. You have a good sense of yourself, your beliefs, morals, and you handle yourself well. I have no doubt that you will be successful in whatever path you choose. Dream Candice, dream big and you will achieve the goals you've set for yourself.

Love, MOM

It was in March of '85, under a bright blue Texas sky my life forever changed. I held your mother's hand because the pain is so hard to bear when you're only 23. As soon as you arrived, life's miracle realized, our hearts began to sing. You were a great big ray of light that brightened up our lives.

So fragile-----so small-----so sweet!

Now that time has passed on by, a young lady has arrived. I'm as proud as a Dad can be. You've made it through your high school years with dignity and grace. Each challenge that you've met, you've handled with determination and good taste. Now your future is looking bright as you embark on college life. I just know you will succeed.

Love DAD

Brian,

We, your parents, were truly blessed the day you came into our lives. We wish you happiness and success in all future endeavors and want you to know we are your biggest fans. Never give up --- just rest a while. Go Glamo!!!

Notes from your Editors

As we looked through the pages of past yearbooks we came to one final decision -- we wanted our yearbook to be the best yearbook ever. We also wanted the Class of 2003 to live on. As many of you know, it takes a lot of time to compile pictures and format pages. We came upon various memories from our childhood and reminisced through the pictures that were given by our classmates. The time spent here at WLHS seemed to fly by, and we could see how we have changed during the past four years. Through the good and bad times, we have come through it all as a class. These years have definitely been some of the best we will ever live in our lives. We ask you to look through the pages to see how the Song Remains the Same, and remember all the times that we have shared together as the Class of 2003.

We would like to give a special thanks to Mr. Greene for his help with getting us on top of deadlines and making sure we made them. We would like to thank Mr. Czarnecki for the time that he took to take pictures so we can actually have a yearbook. Also, we would like to thank Sean Gelinas for helping us with the sports section, Alice Wong for her work on the cover, and to everyone else who helped make this yearbook possible, we appreciate all your efforts.

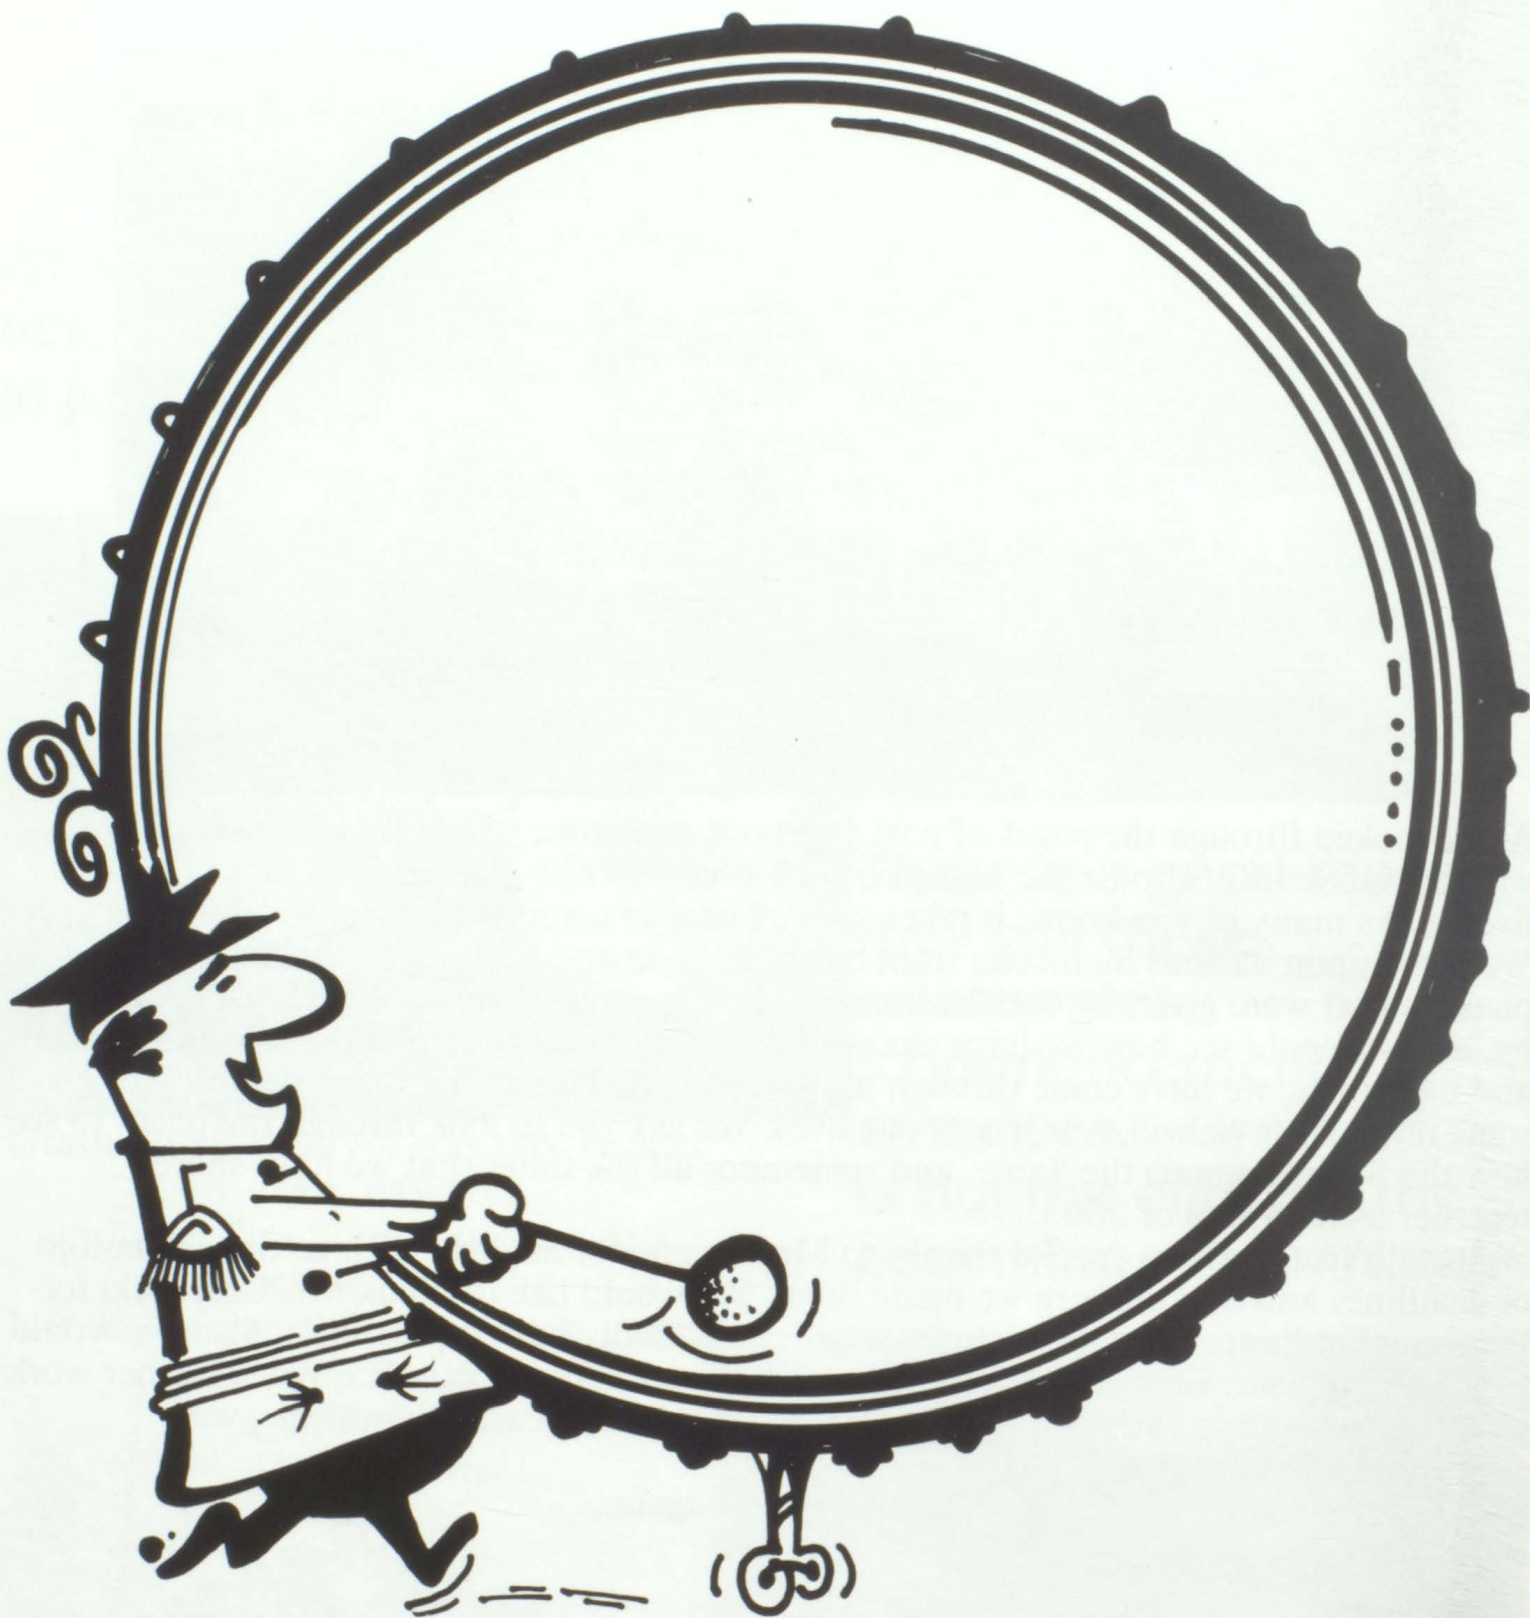

Until we meet again...
